GERMAN POLITICAL PARTIES DEBATE ON REPARATIONS

French Troops Eagerly Await Any Evasion of Allied Terms.

ONLY 60 HOURS GRACE REMAINS

New Combination With Soviet Russia Is Now Proposed.

Berlin, May 10.—Unexpected opposition to acceptance of the Allied ultimatum developed among Reichstag leaders today. After late sessions party leaders failed to bring the Democrats and Volkspartie leaders into an agreement with the majority Socialists favoring acceptance of the demands.

At 1:00 a. m. the Volkspartie voted against acceptance but the Democrats continued in session. If the Democrats finally vote to oppose the acceptance, the question stands a chance of defeat, and the Allied Invasion will start as planned. The Reichstag is to meet at 4 p. m. By that time it is expected the Volkspartie will have determined the course they will follow, and the new cabinet will be in process of formation.

Paul Loebe, a majority Socialist is the leading candidate for the chancellorship.

COMBINATION PLANNED

Berlin newspapers discuss the suggestion made by opponents of the ultimatum that Germany refuse to sign the agreement and form a new cabinet with Russia. This proposal has the approval of the Radicals, who have been anxious for full recognition of the Soviet Republic.

FRENCH DISPATCHES FAVORABLE

Paris, May 10.—Berlin dispatches to the French Foreign Office, received today but not made public, indicate Germany will accept the allied ultimatum.

Paris, May 10.—With only 60 hours remaining until the expiration of the Allied ultimatum Thursday at midnight, France today prepared for the "jump off." French leaders frankly hope Germany will reject and give them a chance to occupy more German territory.

Plans for the invasion of the Ruhr district are complete to the last train schedule. Additional troops have been concentrated at Duesselforf, where the start will be made. Occupation can be completed in 15 hours.

"Wild Cats" Have A Tough Schedule

Linsenbigler's "Wild Cats" have a strenuous week of baseball ahead of them, according to their schedule. Tomorrow they meet the Grampian team on the Grampian grounds.

Thursday they open the season at Philipsburg with the strong Philipsburg local team.

Friday afternoon they meet Curwensville American Legion team in the first of a five game series between the two nines. The opener will be played at Curwensville.

Saturday they are scheduled for a "go" with the Surveyor team.

The "Wild Cats" are in fine shape and promise to give a good account of themselves.

Curwensville News.

Last January Mrs. Addleman went to the McGirk Sanitarium for medical treatment. She returned home about the middle of February, somewhat improved but nine weeks ago, became bedfast and her vitality ebbed slowly away until she answered the call of "well done thou good and faithful servant, come to thy reward." Her funeral will be held from the Addleman home on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Dr. J. C. Collins will have chage of the religious services. The interment of her body will be made in the Adlleman family plot in the McClure cemetery.

The war pictures as shown in the Academy of Music yesterday afternoon and evening under the auspices of John Sipes Post No. 505, American Legion, were all that was claimed for them. The afternoon as well as the evening entertainments were reasonably well patronized.

GREAT BRITAIN AGAIN FACES AN INDUSTRIAL WAR

London, May 10.—Renewed danger of an industrial war threatened Great Britain today. Secretary Williams, of the Transport Workers, prepared to stampede his followers into striking. Executives of the unions met this forenoon to discuss the matter.

Leaders recognize the new danger and are pushing preparations to meet a general tie-up of indusrries.

LABOR LEADER ADDRESSES STATE FEDERATION MEET

Harrisburg, May, 10.—In a review of the 1921 session of the Pennsylvania Assembly before the convention of the State Federation of Labor, President James Maurer declared larbor had fared better than at previous meetings, but that measures urged by labor had been defeated.

"Of the 30 measures the toilers were interested in, not one became a law" he said. He stated that representatives of numerous trades were in constant attendance at the session and not one of the bills aimed to outlaw organized labor was enacted.

He condemned the legislature in vigorous terms for increased taxation and riotous extravagance.

Stocks of coal are significant because they are the consumer's reserve against a possible interruption in supply. Such interruptions have occurred in the past through mine strikes, traffic congestion on the railroads, or severe weather interfering with the delivery of loaded coal. When stocks are large consumers can delay purchasing until offered favorable terms. Small stocks, on the contrary, drive many consumers to enter the spot market and conduce to higher prices. The condition of stocks ,therefore, has an important effect on the coal market and is a matter of consequence to all who buy and sell coal in quantity.

Production of bituminous coal declined steadily from December 1920, to the end of the coal year, March 31. From a maximum of 12,800,000 tons a week in December, production had sunk to a bare 6,000,000 tons, the lowest point (except, of course, for the great strike of 1919) touched since April, 1914.

The Coal Trade Journal Reports the Following Situation in the Boston Coal Markets:

Better buying of bituminous during the last few days by many of the local shippers and it is thought ing. Further tightening seen in the that the lull of a week ago is passanthracite situation.

SLANDER SUIT FOR $1000 IS ENTERED HERE

Deputy Attorney General W. I. Swoope entered suit in the Prothonotary's office yesterday, in behalf of Elizabeth Voris and Thomas Voris, her husband, against Rosa Smazak and Frank Smazak, her husband, for the purpose of recovering $1,000 damages to Mrs. Voris' character and reputation for honesty, by reason of certain alleged false and slanderous statements made by Mrs. Smozak concerning her.

The parties all reside in Beli township. The statement recites that at the occasion of a christening of a child of a Mr. and Mrs. Dypki, a neighbor, during the dancing, Mrs. Voris passed "the plate" for the infant, as is the custom. Mrs. Smolzak told several neighbors that Mrs. Voris "knocked down" at least half of what she collected, telling a number of people that she saw her collecting in one room and, as she passed through to the other room, Mrs. Voris took the money off the plate and only gave the baby what was put on the plate in the second room.

For this alleged false and slanderous statement the monetory damages are asked.

AUTO RUNS OVER LITTLE GIRL ON WAY TO STORE

Tot Rushed to Clearfield Hospital By the Driver.

FEARED INJURIES WILL BE FATAL

4-Year Old Victim a Daughter of John Sughrue.

Eleanor, four year old daughter of John L. Sughrue, of West Front St., was run over by an automobile on Nichols street in front of the store of Walker & Loy about ten minutes of 12 o'clock and received injuries which it is feared will result fatally.

The automobile which ran over the child was being driven by Wade Mason. At least one wheel of the machine passed over the little body.

Mr. Mason picked the badly injured little tot up and rushed with her to the Clearfield hospital, where medical attention was given her.

The little victim is one of a large family of children who lost their mother by death only recently and it is said the little tot was on her way to the store when hit by the Mason car. Another little girl was with her. There were three or four cars standing near the store and it is believed that these cars interfered with her seeing the approaching car driven by Mr. Mason.

SUNDAY BLAZE DOES NO DAMAGE

Six days shalt thou labor, but if on the seventh you attempt to do the manicuring of your own topography by the safety razor route you are liable to set the house on fire. At least that is the experience of C. S. D'Invillieres, who rooms at the home of Mrs. Jeanne Shaw Bailey on Market street.

Mr. D'Invillieres was engaged in the necessary pastime of slaying the brush which grew in and around and about his chin the past several days about 1:30 yesterday afternoon. He steamed one of those first aid to confirmed bachelors, otherwise known as a "canned heat" furnace, to warm the water incident to the operation and while "lathering up" the pesky furnace overturned and in a minute a husky little fire was underway.

The fire alarm was sounded but the flames wore subdued by the "barber-cheater" before they got into action.

Record Attendance At The West Side Methodist Church

The West Side Methodist Sunday School had another record-breaking attendance yesterday morning when a total of 697 persons attended the session. The zealous workers in charge of the Sunday School have been making earnest efforts to put their school in the very front rank, both as to attendance and results attained, and the good work being accomplished is attracting attention throughout the community.

Every Sunday during the past couple of months has been a record breaker as to attendance, but yesterday's attendance, was the banner total and taxed the capacity of the Sunday School room almost beyond its limits.

One of the features of the Mother's Day service yesterday was the singing of Mrs. Hursh Johnson Mrs. Johnson, who is one of Clearfield's most noted soloists, possesses a sweet, clear soprano voice of far reaching range and power. The singularly pretty melody, "Mother o Mine," gave Mrs. Johnson ampl opportunity to display the wealth o talent she possesses and the audi ence was fairly carried away by the range and volume of her exceptionally pleasing voice. Miss Amy Reno presided at the piano and proved to be an especially competent accompanist and musician. Both artists were the recipients of the most extravagant praise from the large audience which was fairly charmed by their most excellent effort.

ALTOONA CONSTABLE GETS HIS MONEY

Constable W. A. Davis, of Altoona, came to town today to take Anthony Fry back to the "Mountain City." Fry was picked up here Saturday by Constable Lee Sunderland on a warrant from the office of W. E. Prampsey, Altoona, charged with neglecting to settle with his boarding boss, Mrs. Ritchie, before leaving Altoona to accept a position in Clearfield.

Fry paid the bill at noon today and remained in Clearfield.

MRS. MARGARET WARING

Mrs. Margaret Waring, who passed peacefully into rest eternal at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bunnell in Plymptonville on May 5th, 1921, at 12:15 a. m., after an illness of one year's duration, was a consistent Christian woman, most highly respected by all who knew her.

She was born in Bald Eagle Valley and lived with her husband on a farm in Morris township for many years before coming to Cleanfield. some fifteen years ago. Her husband, the late William Waring, preceded her to the grave on May 22d, 1920.

Mrs. Waring was a devout member of the West Side Methodist church and died strong in the faith in which she believed.

She is survived by three daughters as follows: Mrs. Lillian Watts, of Mars, Pa.; Mrs. Nancy Bunnell, of Plymptonville, and Marth Waring, of Olanta.

Funeral services were held at the Bunnell home on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by her pastor the Rev. C. C. Snavely. Interment in Mount Joy cemetery.

WORKMEN COMPLETE CONCRETE BASE ON THIRD STREET

The concrete base for the square on Third street from Market to Cherry St. was completed Monday morning and the laying of brick on the Market street end begun.

When this block is completed the repaving of Third street will have been completed except for the square between Reed street and Bigler avenue. This work has already been provided for and will also doubtless be finished this summer.

The work of laying the concrete will be begun on the Mossop alley tomorrow and this improvement rushed through as soon as possible.

Council by its improvement campaign, has furnished some much needed employment just at this time.

SEEK FUNDS FOR OWENS CEMETERY

The Owens cemetery back of Hillsdale is one of the oldest burying grounds in this section. Many members of the pioneer families of the vicinity are buried therein and as their descendants have died or moved away, this old graveyard has been more or less neglected.

A number of local people got together recently for the purpose of having the cemetery placed in proper shape before the coming Memorial Day.

A subscription has been prepared and contributions wili be asked for in an effort to secure sufficient funds to put the cemetery in the shape it deserves to be.

A. G. Kramer, Esq., was named Secretary of the Committee and will receive and receipt for any contributions you wish to make for this worthy purpose. The upkeep of this old landmark is a community affair and should be a community burden and every native Clearfielder should be proud to contribute his portion of the expense. It will not take a big sum but the necessary amount is badly needed. Contributions may also be handed to John S. Wrigley who has the subscrption paper.

BRIDGE DOWN ON DUBOIS ROAD

The bridge across Little Anderson Creek, about midway of Draucker woods on the Clearfield—DuBois road broke down with an auto truck on Saturday last and as a result touring traveling this route are forced to detour around the broken down bridge at the Chestnut Ridge School House and again come out on the main road at P. W. Draucker's.

NEED VOLUNTEERS FOR ROAD WORK

It is expected by local people interested that a large crowd of volunteers will be on hand Friday and Saturday of this week to assist in the repairing and improvement of the "four-mile road," leading from the Penfield road across to the Mt. George road.

This stretch is used by State Forester Dague and his crews in getting across from the Penfield road country through to the recently acquired State lands on Medix Run and is one of the main arteries into some of the best hunting country in Clearfield county.

Forester Dague will have his crew, a team and a truck at work on Friday and Saturday and Oscar Long will also provide a team or two for the work.

It is expected every hunting club in the region affected will send their quota to help in this work.

The Forestry Department is limited in its road expense and Mr Dague is stretching the handicap in this case on account of the importance of the road, and if everybody else interested, does as well, the road will soon be in shape for automobile travel and, aside from its convenience, will make possible a delightful automobile tour down through the wildest section of the mountain forests in this region.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES

SECOND WEEK OF MAY TERM CIVIL COURT OPENS HERE

Two Women Serve on Jury. Two Fail to Appear.

HORSE-DEAL GETS INTO CIVIL COURT

Ford Sale Comes Before Jury on Tuesday Morning.

The second week of May term civil court opened Monday morning with Judge Bell presiding. Many of the cases listed for this week were either settled or continued leaving not more than five or six for trial, and all of these are of more or less minor concern.

The list of jurors was called at 10 o'clock and a number of jurors engaged in farming asked to be excused from jury service in order that they might look after their spring seeding. Judge Bell strained a point to accommodate them and eleven out of the sixty were excused.

There were four women jurors summoned for thi sweek but women appear to be no more anxious for jury service than the average male citizen of Clearfield county and just half of them were on hand for jury service. The women jurors serving are:—Mrs. Rose Ashenfelter, housewife, of Luthersburg, and Mrs. Ellen McNaul, housewife, Curwensvile.

HORSE DEAL IN COURT

The first case to go to trial in this week's Civil Court was called Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. It was the case of George W. Weaver, vs. Mike Gillotte, and grows out of a horse deal between Geo. H. Gates and Gillotte, who resides in Morris township, in which Gates sold Gillotte a horse and taking in payment therefor $100 in cash, a note for $125 and a horse owned by Gillotte valued at $175. Gates guaranteed his horse but it did not square with his promises and the second animal was given Gillotte. When the second one proved lacking Gates made an arrangement with Gillotte to meet him at Port Matilda on a certain day when a thrid horse was decided upon. Gillotte turning over his note for $150 to take the place of the first note for $125.

The defense claims the note sued for by Weaver is the $125 note Gillotte gave Gates originally and which was substituted by the $150 note, and which Gillotte failed to secure when he gave the latter note.

The plaintiff denies the allegation and says the note speaks for itself and the suit brought for payment. Miller & Hartswick represented the plaintiff and Smith & Smith the defense.

VERDICT FOR PLAINTIFF

The case agaisnt Gillotte resulted in the Court taking the case away from the jury and directing that a verdict be entered in favor of the plaintiff for $125, the amount of the note at issue with interest from May 1, 1920.

Ford Sale Causes Litagation

The case against Gillotte resulted Motor Company of Altoona against Charles H. Gardiner of Madera, was taken up this morning in Civil Court. This suit is brought to recover $406, half the price of a second hand Ford sedan sold to Gardiner by the Motor Company Nov. 29, 1919, and which payment had never been made by Gardiner.

The plaintiff is represented by John B. McGrath and Miller & Hartswick.

ANNUAL TAX BILL OF COUNTRY TO BE CONSIDERED

Washington, May, 10.—America's annual tax bill will be fixed by Congress at $3,500,000,000 if plans of house leaders of the Ways and Means Committee go through. They would like to reduce the per capita taxation of the country to $30 per man, woman and child. Many changes in taxation are under consideration, including repeal of the excess profit tax, now one big source of revenue, the soda water and ice cream tax and some of the other more obnoxious consumption levies; and the transportation tax.

Because "Medium" alone does not assure an oil's resistance to change in "body" after it is subjected to the terrific heat of the motor.

To be fully efficient, a motor oil must possess the vital essential known as refinement. "Refinement" means many things in oil technology. But to you it means QUALITY.

"By Skinney"

Handsome Jack Murray in the toils in New York City for having three wives attempts to justify himself with the sage observation that "all true men are children at heart. They want some one to mother them. I am such a man."

"All women, on the other hand, are "vamps at heart. It's something they learn in the cradle. My misfortune has been that women have cornered me." Darned if it don't sound reasonable at that.

We've skinned our knuckles several times battling in the colyum for equal rights for chiopractors, asteopathes and other "punch doctors," but after reading about that mutton crop whiskered osteopath lies in the notorious Stillman divorce case we are pretty near off those birds for life. You never could get a real old-fashioned medico to say such things as this fellow alleged his patient told him, even if true, let alone have him go on a witness stand and swear to it in a suit where the rights of an innocent little kiddo were at stake and a woman was fighting for her fair name and that of her child against a bird like this man Stillman. The old family doctor, counselor and friend couldn't be hauled into such a situation with that famous 20 mule borax team.

WHAT HOYLE SAYS ABOUT IT.

As "June, the month of brides," is coming on apace, and we have already been confidentially querried as to just how it should be done when it is decided to "put on a lot of dog", as the slangsters put it, in the way of a church wedding, we give herewith the correct formula, taken from the book. Paste it in your hat, the divorce courts are open and you never can tell when you'll need this schedule.

At a church wedding the bride's mother is escorted to the first pew at the left of the church by the chief usher, while the groom's family occupy the first pews on the right. The bridal party at the first strains of the wedding march starts for the altar. At the same moment the groom and best man come from the vestry and stand at the right of the chancel steps, waiting. The ushers come first, two by two, then the bridesmaids, the maid of honor, and the bride on the left arm of her father. The ushers and bridesmaids group themselves on either side of the chancel and the groom receives the bride from her father or escort and proceeds to the altar. The maid of honor stands directly beside the bride, to take her bouquet and turn her train and the best man by the groom to give him the ring. The bride's father waits in the rear of the chancel until he is called upon to give away the bride, after which he joins his wife in the first pew.

No Real Excuse for Moods.

Many mean things are done in the family, for which moods are put forward as an excuse, when moods themselves are the most inexcusable things of all. A man or woman in tolerable health has no moral right to indulge in moods.—J. G. Holland.

Not Too Exacting.

We are not punctilious about the scenery in the movies, just so Caesar is not shown leaning against a telegraph pole.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Effective In Ancient Warfare.

Among types of sword famous in the past must be mentioned the great two-handed affair swung by the Germans in lansquenets, who were much mixed up in the French religious wars. So large was it, it could not be carried at the side in a scabbard, but had to be swung across the back. When the lansquenets went into action they had to be stationed a good distance apart, in order to confine the casualties to the enemy. Each took his stand, started the old scythe going and developed quite a sphere of influence.

Placing the Obligation.

"Hopkins is inviting me out to spend the week-end at this place, but I hate to put myself under obligations to such a fellow." "Oh, don't feel that way about it. Hopkins never pays his bills, so it will be to his butcher and grocer that you're under obligations."—New York Sun.

Roman Baths Overpraised.

The baths of ancient Rome so wonderfully pictured by painters and story tellers, do not compare favorably with the modern bath. Judged by standards prevailing before the coming of Christ these baths were wonderful, but measured by standards of today the glories of Rome, marks of the highest degree of civilization in the ancient world, would be declared unsanitary and likely be condemned as menaces to the health of users.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

Once more King Death has invaded this community and removed from her family circlue and friends, Mrs. Frances A. Addleman, widow of the late Henry Addleman, whose demise took place at her home on South Side, Sunday evening, May 8th, 1921 at 10 o'clock, her age being 72 year, 1 month and 18 days.

Mrs. Addleman was the second daughter of Isaac and Susanna (Smith) Caldwell, and was born and reared on the homestead farm in Pike township, about 1 1-2 miles southwest of Curwensville. She remained with her parents until her marriage to Henry Addleman, Jan. 20, 1867.

In her new relations and home, as her children grew up around her, she proved a mother worthy of the name; During the pastorate of Rev. Mosser, she was converted and united with the M. E. church and during the balance of her life lived and followed in the footsteps of the Master until the end.

She was highly esteemed and loved by all with whom she came in contact. She is survived by four daughters, viz: Mrs. Geo. Rapp, Mrs. M. D. Shirey, this place; Mrs. Della B. Severin, of Johnstown and Mrs. Harvey Carr, of Clearfield. Two children died in infancy. Of her sisters and brothers yet living to mourn her demise are Mrs. Andrew Cupples, residing in Montana; Mrs. John Myers and Mrs. S. S. Moore, of this place; John, of Lawrence township; Rex, living in the west, and Pierce, of this place.

Joseph L. Dale, celebrated his 81st birthday on Sunday. He is hale and well preserved man yet despite his advanced age.

When Baby is ailing, the trouble may be due to worms. Common symptoms are frightened dreams, picking the nose, paleness, dullness, indigestion, offensive breath.

But the Old Reliable Builder, Nerv-Worth, Soon Restored His Vigor.

It is useless to give up hope and surrender to depressed feelings when Nerv-Worth will build you up so quickly. Proof that it will do this is found in hundreds of statements from satisfied users, one of which, written by J. E. Wilson, West Poplar St., Sydney, Ohio, says: "I had nervous indigestion, and couldn't sleep at night. I would wake up in the morning so tired and listless that I hardly had enough pep to get on my clothes. I have used Nerv-Worth only two weeks, and I am greatly improved." At this time of year, many people feel depressed and feel the need of a tonic. If the reader feels that way, let him choose Nerv-Worth for his tonic. If after you have taken your first bottle, you are not pleased, your druggist is authorized to refund your money. Nerv-Worth is sold and recommended by Stewart's Drug Store.

According to Treasury Department announcements, the new Government program of reduction of federal expenditures, existing loans and taxes, will do much to make Liberty Bonds a more attractive investment.

It is about time something is being done to make these war pledges more attractive. Liberty Bonds are way below par now, and to those who can buy at present prices, and hold on until maturity, present an excellent investment.

But to those Liberty Bond holders who purchased in times of the Government's dire need, it seems something should be done to help them out. Pinched by the unemployment wave, many must sacrifice to obtain money to carry on their daily subsistence. Only to those who hold on to their investment until maturity, is there now any prospect of gain. By all mean,s if possible, hold on to them.

The War Department has at last authorized the publication of the list of deserters on "Slacker lists" by the Exemption Boards of the different draft districts of the country. There is no doubt a laige number of names on these lists is in error,as the draftee, after registering, removed to some other section and in many cases "did his bit" and yet his name is carried on the "slacker list" of his home district.

To protect the newspapers publishing these official lists from possible suit for libel, Congress recently passes a special resolution directing that the "slacker list' be first published in the Congressional Record thereby making the same a privileged publication.

To the everlasting credit of the men of District No. 1 of Clearfield County and the efficient, hard-working Exemption Board handling the work here in Clearfield there will be a very small list to publish from District No. 1. Every man on the list, with the exception of but seven, was either inducted into the service or exempted from service for legitimate reasons and of the seven who are listed as "slackers," four of them are colored men who came here from the South to work in the brick works and 'floated' 'elsewhere after registering and through their illiteracy or thoughtlessness failed to report their whereabouts, doubtless have been inducted into the service from other sections. The remaining three were foreigners for which the same excuse might safely be advanced.

The men of this section of Clearfield county were "right" and Exemption Board No. 1 made a record of efficiency, the records show, equalled by few boards throughout the country.

The Chairmanship of the Committee on Agriculture in the Senate is a position sought after as never before. Gaily Be-Frilled are The Lingerie Blouses

Their delicate tints in variety and beauty bring to mind Summer flowers and fill one with a desire to own several to wear with sports costumes, separate skirts and the street suit. The soft batiste modes have touches of hand drawnwork adorning their frills while the fronts of some of the organdy Blouses are tucked in a way that suggests shirt bosoms. But it has been left to the voile Blouses to exhibit a marked preference for laces.

New Blouses of organdy, voile and batiste, priced from $1.00 to $12.50.

Georgette and crepe de chine Blouses, priced from $4.95 to $25.00.
